IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

v. * MAG. NO. ROSS CARPENTER-FABER * ****** ****** ****** ****** *****
ROSS CARPENTER-FABER * ****** * ****** * ****** * *
 ORDER REGARDING USE OF VIDEO CONFERENCING/TELECONFERENCING In accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 43(b)(2) and Standing Order 2020-06, this Court finds: X That the Defendant (or the Juvenile) has consented to the use of video teleconferencing/teleconferencing to conduct the proceeding(s) held today, after consultation with counsel; and X That the proceeding(s) to be held today cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice, for the following specific reasons: 1. COVID pandemic, 2. Inability to conduct in-person hearing for indefinite period, and 3. Consent of defendant.
ORDER REGARDING USE OF VIDEO CONFERENCING/TELECONFERENCING In accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 43(b)(2) and Standing Order 2020-06, this Court finds: X That the Defendant (or the Juvenile) has consented to the use of video teleconferencing/teleconferencing to conduct the proceeding(s) held today, after consultation with counsel; and X That the proceeding(s) to be held today cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice, for the following specific reasons: 1. COVID pandemic, 2. Inability to conduct in-person hearing for indefinite period, and 3. Consent of defendant.
In accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 43(b)(2) and Standing Order 2020-06, this Court finds: X That the Defendant (or the Juvenile) has consented to the use of video teleconferencing/teleconferencing to conduct the proceeding(s) held today, after consultation with counsel; and X That the proceeding(s) to be held today cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice, for the following specific reasons: 1. COVID pandemic, 2. Inability to conduct in-person hearing for indefinite period, and 3. Consent of defendant.
That the Defendant (or the Juvenile) has consented to the use of video teleconferencing/teleconferencing to conduct the proceeding(s) held today, after consultation with counsel; and X That the proceeding(s) to be held today cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice, for the following specific reasons: 1. COVID pandemic, 2. Inability to conduct in-person hearing for indefinite period, and 3. Consent of defendant.
with counsel; and X That the proceeding(s) to be held today cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice, for the following specific reasons: 1. COVID pandemic, 2. Inability to conduct in-person hearing for indefinite period, and 3. Consent of defendant.
with counsel; and X That the proceeding(s) to be held today cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice, for the following specific reasons: 1. COVID pandemic, 2. Inability to conduct in-person hearing for indefinite period, and 3. Consent of defendant.
That the proceeding(s) to be held today cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice, for the following specific reasons: 1. COVID pandemic, 2. Inability to conduct in-person hearing for indefinite period, and 3. Consent of defendant.
to the interests of justice, for the following specific reasons: 1. COVID pandemic, 2. Inability to conduct in-person hearing for indefinite period, and 3. Consent of defendant.
1. COVID pandemic, 2. Inability to conduct in-person hearing for indefinite period, and 3. Consent of defendant.
Accordingly, the proceeding(s) held on this date may be conducted by:
Video Teleconferencing Teleconferencing, because video teleconferencing is not reasonably available for the following reason:
The Defendant (or the Juvenile) is detained at a facility lacking video teleconferencing capability.
Other:

Dated: 3/18/21

Honorable Anthony R. Mautone United States Magistrate Judge